

An Expansion and Betterment Sale Begins This Week—A Vast Mercantile Movement With a Host of Remarkable Values.

We must have more room—Our fast increasing trade demands it—So we have decided to remove our large Dress Making Department, which now occupies half the floor space on the second floor of our building, to beautiful and new quarters on the third floor. We will tear down all the fixtures on the second floor and construct a large addition to the Cloak, Suit and Upholstery Departments. The entire second floor must be turned over to the contractors in two weeks. This means that the stock contained in the Cloak Room, including Cloth Suits, Separate Skirts, Shirt Waists, Shirt Waist Suits, Infants' Dresses, Furs Draped, Curtains and Upholstery Goods of all sorts, must be moved out and that space elsewhere in the store must be encroached upon. We propose to reduce our inconvenience to a minimum by promptly closing out a large part of the stocks affected.

At Prices That Are in Many Cases Far Below Usual Wholesale Cost.

The entire second floor will be re-arranged. The departments will have bright new fixtures, and in most cases, new locations. These changes will affect some of our very large and most important stocks, and these stocks are to be reduced in volume as much as possible in anticipation of the general re-adjustment of space and location. Beginning to-morrow therefore we will begin a great merchandise movement which, for want of a more excessive title, we shall call "an expansion and betterment sale." For expansion of space compels the rebuilding, and the better serving of our customers will be attended by the re-adjustment of the second floor departments. The sale will be an event of interest to every one of our customers and to the public generally. Every department will have something to offer far under value. Some of the lots perhaps will be too small to advertise. It will be well to come and look through the store every day.

It Was a Shame, Poor King.

The unusual sight of a real King surrounded by a retinue of servants and his Private Secretary being forced to ride in the colored or "Jim Crow" compartment of a railway train was witnessed at Lexington Friday afternoon, when King Ronbooye, claiming to be at the head of the South Sea Islands, passed through en route to Chattanooga and the South. When seen at the depot the King was crying as if his heart would break at the humiliation of being compelled to ride in the negro compartment. He refused to be interviewed, but from his Secretary it was learned that the party had intended spending several weeks in the South, but finding the Southern railroads so uncharitable in their treatment, they would likely return to the St. Louis World's Fair within the next few days. The King was dressed in knickerbockers, white stockings without shoes, and wide green sashes tied around his waist, and tried in every way to hide from view of the crowd of curious sightseers who had gathered to see him. He should have wired Frank Remington, the negro sympathizer of Paris Democrat, who would have had things arranged to suit his majesty.

The Smart Set Taken In.

For several months there has been in Paris a man by the name of Glenn, a good talker, a good dresser, and all round sport. It was said that he was interested in a number of slot machines. Anyway, he whispered into the ears of a few of our leading sports of a "good thing" he was going to pull off last week at St. Louis. It was a plausible story, for it was known that he pulled off one last year and won a large amount of money, and was also ruled off the track.

These local wise men put their friends next. Glenn did not want to handle the money, but insisted that a man be sent from Paris with it to Chicago, where it would be put on in the hand books there. Not a dollar was to be bet on the horse in St. Louis. A collection was taken up very secretly here and $1,900 was raised and the committee of the wisest of the wise men of the West was sent to Chicago with the roll about the middle of the week. Nothing was heard from them until yesterday. And a sorry tale it is to relate. The Committee was trying to get the money on, but the hand-book men would not take it in a lump. Glenn then stepped up and said: "Come with me, I'll show you where you can get it all on." The limbs followed the shepherd into an elegantly furnished place with all the appearances of a pool-room. The man handed them a ticket for $29,000 to $1,900. Imagine the feelings of the lambs, for it was a cinch bet. The race was over and the committee returned to the room, and lo, and behold! the furniture had been changed and it looked like another place altogether—the men even were not the ones they bet with. To the police they flew and had two men arrested and placed in jail. They sent one member of the committee home to explain, but he stopped in Lexington and said there he would stay until the rest of the gang arrived, as he would not return home alone. By the way, it is said that Glenn took nine hurdles and the water jump and showed an electrical burst of speed on the flats and "win easy."

Thus ended a sad story, but one for much reflection.

Two Good Games.

The Maysville Base Ball Club arrived Sunday morning to play two games with the Paris Club, Sunday and Monday. The Maysville boys are a set of young gentlemen, every one of them, and we think they can truly say they were treated as such by the Paris boys, who did everything to make their visit to this city a pleasant one.

SUNDAY'S GAME.

This was the fastest and most exciting game of ball witnessed in Paris for several years. All those who witnessed it pronounced it the best amateur game they had ever seen.

The Paris boys took the lead in the second inning and held it throughout the game. The score stood 3 to 2 for six innings and for a time things were not looking quite as pleasant for the Paris players as it should have been, but in the seventh they made two runs and in the ninth the boys from Mason managed to score in one, making a score of 5 to 3.

The Maysville team has some good players and they did some excellent fielding, but as for batters they seem to be lacking, as Cooper made fourteen fan the wind. The Paris team has been greatly strengthened by the addition of Spears on third, and with the old players they now have a good team. The score by innings is as follows:

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Maysville	1	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	1—3
Paris	1	2	0	0	0	0	2	0	—5

Batteries: Paris, Cooper and Dempsey; Maysville, Howell and Burnett. Errors, Maysville 6, Paris 4. Struck out by Cooper 14, Howell 1. Hit by Cooper 3, Howell 2. Hits, Maysville 3, Paris 6. Two base hits, Paris 1. Umpires, James and Duncan. Attendance good.

MONDAY'S GAME.

The game yesterday was a repetition of Sunday's—fast ball playing from start to finish. Linville, who pitched the first seven innings, held Maysville down with three hits, and as he seemed to be getting weak, Cooper was put in the box. Linville held out exceedingly well considering the practice he has had. Seven hits were secured from Dinger. Good fielding on both sides. The score:

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Maysville	0	1	0	0	0	0	2	0	—3
Paris	0	1	0	2	1	1	0	0	—5

Batteries: Paris, Linville, Cooper and Dempsey; Maysville, Dinger and Burnett. Hits—Paris 7, Maysville 3. Errors—Paris 5, Maysville 7. Two base hits—Paris 1. Umpire, James. Attendance 300.

DEATH LIST GROWING.

Fatalities From the Gen. Slocum Disaster Placed at Over 700.

It is Believed That Many Reported Missing Are Safe and Will Be Heard From—Over 500 Bodies Recovered.

New York, June 17.—With unceasing effort, search is going on for the bodies of those who perished Wednesday on the Gen. Slocum. What the list of victims will total scarce one dares venture a guess.

Police and health department officials have placed the number at a figure as high as 1,000 and more, but Thursday night it was seen that the maximum fatality will not largely exceed 700.

Up to dusk 499 bodies had passed through the morgue and of these more than 300 were identified.

Many persons were injured in the panic that followed the breaking out of flames on the Gen. Slocum and at least 200 persons were taken to the hospitals. Not a death has occurred so far among these and many of them have already been discharged.

Mayor McClellan Thursday issued a proclamation to the citizens of New York on the appalling disaster of Wednesday. He appoints a committee to receive contributions to a fund to provide for the fit and proper burial of the dead and for such other relief as may be necessary. As a sign of mourning he ordered the flags of the city hall to be placed at half-mast.

DAMAGE SUITS.

Action Will Be Brought Against Gov. Peabody and Others.

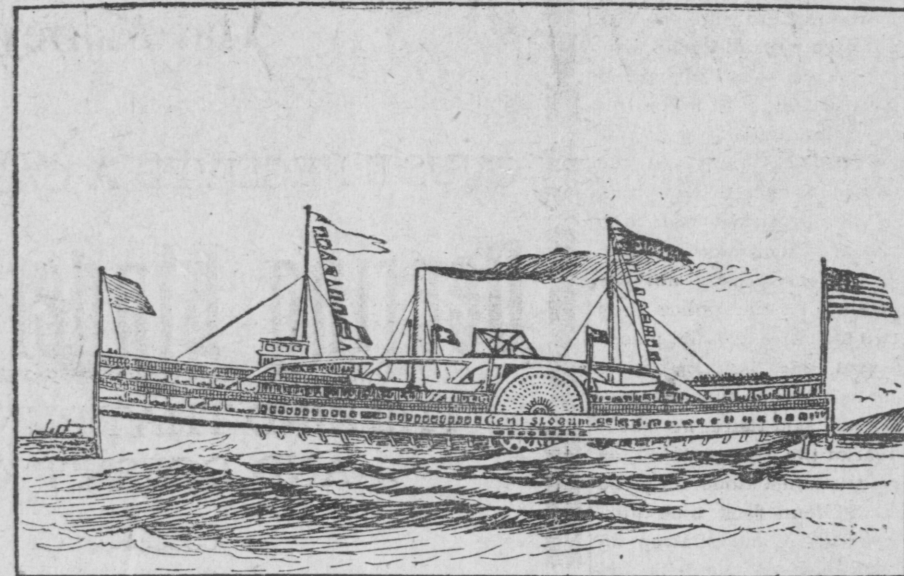

Cripple Creek, Col., June 17.—Assistant District Attorney S. D. Crump Thursday wired Sheriff Rutan at Telluride to hold Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, until K. C. Sterling, a secret service agent of the Mine Owners' association, can bring him to Cripple Creek. Sterling left Thursday afternoon for Telluride. Moyer will be brought here on a warrant issued by Justice of the Peace Patrick, charging him with aiding and abetting the murder of Charles McCormack and Melvin Beck, who were blown up in the Victor mine by an infernal machine explosion November 1, 1903. The warrant implicates Charles C. Kennison, former president of the Miners' Union No. 40, who was arrested in Denver last Friday.

Victor, Col., June 17.—One hundred and forty-four union miners and their sympathizers have been deported from the Cripple Creek district since Monday, June 6, and about three score are booked for exile.

Denver, Col., June 18.—Papers in the $100,000 damage suit in the Portland Gold Mining Co. against Gov. James H. Peabody, Adjt. Gen. Sherman M. Bell, C. C. Hamlin, secretary of the Mine Owners' association, and others connected with that body, as well as Sheriff Edward Bell, of Teller county and his deputies, who assisted in the closing down of the Portland mine, were served on Gov. Peabody Friday.

Gov. Peabody Friday afternoon received notice that on June 22 application would be made to United States Circuit Judge Amos Thayer, in St.

ILL-FATED STEAMER GEN. SLOCUM.

The General Slocum was built for an excursion boat, and when not chartered for special excursions ran between New York and Rockaway Beach. It was owned by the Knickerbocker Boat company, which also owns the excursion steamer Grand Republic. At yacht races the great size of the boat made it prominent in the fleet of excursion steamers that lined the course. The vessel was launched at Brooklyn in April, 1891. The keel was 235 feet, the deck 250 feet long. Its breadth of hull was 37 feet, overboard, 70 feet. The gross tonnage was 1,284 and the net tonnage 1,013. The boat had two boilers, each 23½ feet long and 9½ feet in diameter, and four funnels.

New York, June 18.—Despite the untiring work of the divers and grapples and the watchfulness of scores of men who have given themselves over to the task of searching for the "missing," but few bodies of those who perished in the Slocum disaster were recovered Friday. It was stated by divers who went down into the wreck at dawn that there are many bodies still under the entanglement of timbers and paddle wheels and that it would be necessary to dynamite the bulk or raise it before they could be reached.

Already 559 bodies have been recovered, of which about 50 remain unidentified. These include 273 children, 243 women and 23 men. Thirteen officers of the St. Mark's church are among the dead, one of them being a woman.

Saturday there were 300 or more funerals, and 32 unrecognizable bodies which are now lying at the morgue were placed each in a separate coffin and in a separate hearse and laid away in the Lutheran cemetery at Midwayville, L. I. The city has arranged for their burial, a plot large enough for the interment of 250 bodies having been set aside in this cemetery. All the unknown dead will be placed here side by side.

New York, June 20.—Sunday's harvest of dead from the steamer Gen. Slocum numbered 49, bringing the total number of bodies so far recovered up to 622. Of these 559 have been identified, while about 40 of the victims now lying at the morgue have not been claimed by friend or relative.

During the day 36 bodies were recovered and it was not till after dark when the great majority of the searchers had ceased to work that the other 13 were found. Most of these came up from the bottom and floated into shore. They were discovered by the police, who were left to watch all night.

While the list of missing was cut down somewhat by the identifications made Sunday, 11 new names were added to that roll, thus leaving the total of missing over 300.

Secretary Cortelyou, of the department of commerce and labor, visited the scene of the disaster Sunday. He was accompanied by H. K. Smith, deputy commissioner of corporations of the same department, under whose supervision an investigation will be held. Supervising Inspector General Uhler and Inspector Rodie.

Secretary Cortelyou remained at North Brother Island long enough to witness a number of bodies being taken out of the water. He refused to discuss the situation, but Mr. Uhler gave out a statement in which it was explained that the trip was preliminary to the investigation to be made by the federal authorities which, it was promised, would be complete and thorough in every respect.

Louis, for an injunction to restrain the governor, the military and all other persons from interfering with the operation of the Portland mine.

Those cited to appear before the federal court at St. Louis are Gov. James H. Peabody, Adjt. Gen. Sherman M. Bell, Sheriff Edward Bell, of Teller county, and the following officers and members of the Cripple Creek District Mine Owners' association: C. C. Hamlin, Judge Colburn, Charles Walden, F. J. Campbell, A. E. Carlton, L. E. Hill and A. T. Holman.

According to the complaint the number of persons employed in the mine was over 500 and these were taken into custody by the authorities and certain ones of them picked out and placed in the bull pen to be deported to the states of Kansas and Mexico. The charge is made that the governor gave tacit consent to the measure when he did not countermand any of the orders issued and carried into effect by Gen. Bell and outside the authority of the governor to carry into effect.

The jurisdiction of the United States court is asked on the grounds that the complainant is a citizen of the state of Iowa and that he has been deprived of his property without due process of law and in violation of the fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth and fourteenth amendments to the constitution.

The complaint further alleges that the complainant property is decreasing in value from lying idle and asks damages against the defendants in the sum of $100,000.

C. C. Hamlin, who is mentioned as one of the defendants, is the partner of the firm of Gunnell & Hamlin. James F. Burns, president of the Portland Co., refuses to discuss his plans for publication, but it is reported he has declared to friends his purpose to defray all expenses of suits that may be begun in the federal court against Gov. Peabody and others by Portland miners who were deported from Cripple Creek. Former Gov. Charles S. Thomas, Mr. Burns' counsel, was busily engaged with Mr. Burns Friday in drawing complainants in the Portland Co.'s suit, but he denied all knowledge of suits to be brought by deported miners.

May Be Settled Out of Court.

New York, June 20.—It was learned Saturday that the differences between Lawrence C. Phipps and Mrs. Phipps, which resulted in the abduction of his children by Mr. Phipps, and later in his beginning suit for divorce in Denver, will be settled out of court.

Rr. Adm. Greer Dead.

Washington, June 18.—Rr. Adm. James A. Greer, retired, U. S. N., died Friday at his home in this city. He was 72 years old and had been on the retired list since 1895.

JAP TRANSPORTS SUNK

Were Attacked by the Russian War Vessels.

A Regiment of Soldiers Went Down With One of Them—An American Bark Was Stopped and Searched by the Russians.

St. Petersburg, June 17.—Emperor Nicholas has received the following telegram dated June 16 from Gen. Kuropatkin:

"I have received the following dispatch from Lieut. Gen. Baron Stakelberg, dated June 16:

"Yesterday I had intended to attack the enemy's right flank but just as our troops had been assigned for the purpose and were beginning to successfully envelop the enemy's right flank the Japanese in turn attacked my right flank with superior forces and I was compelled to retreat by three roads to the north.

"Our losses are heavy, but they are not yet completely known.

"During the engagement the Third and Fourth batteries of the First artillery brigade were literally cut to pieces by the Japanese shells.

"Of 16 guns, 13 were rendered completely useless and were abandoned. "The conduct of the troops was excellent, a large proportion refusing to retire until after they had been repeatedly ordered to do so."

The popular disappointment felt in St. Petersburg over the result of Lieut. Gen. Baron Stakelberg's fight, which it had been hoped for the past 36 hours might turn out to be a victory, is tempered somewhat by the knowledge that the Russian force was overwhelmed by numbers. Gen. Stakelberg does not attempt to conceal the seriousness of his losses, but his report and the report from all other Russian sources agree that the retreat was in no sense a rout.

The fierce character of the fight is made evident by the fact that the Russians were again forced to abandon their guns, thus indicating, as in previous encounters, the superiority of the Japanese artillery.

Tokio, June 20.—The Japanese transport Izumi, which was reported missing a few days ago, was sunk by the Vladivostok fleet of Oshima island last Wednesday morning.

St. Petersburg, June 20.—A dispatch from Mukden says that according to trustworthy advices received there an entire infantry regiment with its commander was sunk in the transports Hitachi and Sado. The same dispatch says that according to Chinese statements attacks made by the Japanese on Port Arthur have been repulsed with heavy losses.

Nagasaki, June 20.—Three boat loads of survivors of the Japanese transport Izumi, which was sunk by the Russian squadron off Oshima on the morning of June 15, have arrived at Makata. Twenty-two other survivors have landed at Maizuru.

The survivors declare that the Izumi was surrounded at 2 o'clock in the morning of the 15th by Russian ships and that the passengers on board of her were transferred to the Russian armored cruiser Gromoboi after which the transport was shelled and sunk.

AN AMERICAN BARK.

The Vessel Stopped and Searched by Russian Cruisers.

London, June 20.—The Daily Mail Monday morning prints the following dispatch from its correspondent at Makodate, Japan:

"The master of the American bark James Johnson, from Shanghai, reports that on the morning of June 18 his ship was stopped by Russian cruisers at the western entrance to the Tsugaru straits and searched. After being detained for two hours the captain was ordered to proceed."

VICIOUS DOGS.

No Mail Delivered Unless They Are Removed.

New York, June 20.—Notice has been served on the owners of vicious dogs that unless the animals are removed at once the post office department will cease to deliver mail to the houses. The notice is the result of the attacks of vicious dogs upon a number of carriers recently. One carrier was entering an arway with the mail when a terrier sprang at him through the open basement gate. For ten minutes he battled with the animal.

Boys Killed by Lightning.

Chester, Pa., June 20.—Four boys standing under a cherry tree on a farm near Felton, three miles from here, were killed Sunday by a stroke of lightning. The dead: Ross Smith, aged 13; Alexander Fullerton, 13; William Davis, 14; Samuel Clark, 15, colored. The boys took shelter from the storm. Smith, Fullerton and Davis were killed instantly. The colored boy was so badly injured that he died on the way to a hospital.

Russian Loss at Vafangow.

Paris, June 20.—A dispatch from St. Petersburg says the total Russian losses at the battle of Vafangow were about 2,000 men, including more than 55 officers. The Russians had 42 battalions engaged against 44 Japanese battalions.

A Chinese Rumor.

Che Foo, June 20.—There is current here a Chinese rumor that the Japanese have captured one of the inner forts at Port Arthur, losing 1,000 men in the engagement. It can not, however, be confirmed.

THE LIQUID FUEL BOARD.

The Navy Department Has Made Public Its Conclusions.

Washington, June 18.—The navy department Friday made public the conclusions of the liquid fuel board of the navy, formed as the result of tests covering a period of 28 months with coal and oil respectively as a navy fuel. In the opinion of the board an intelligent fire room force should find no trouble in burning oil in a uniform manner, and for general purposes on shore high pressure steam was found to be a better medium than air.

The board declares that no fuel oil installation should be permitted for marine purposes which would not permit a return to coal within 24 hours in case of the failure of the oil supply. It says that with the use of oil the forcing of a marine boiler can be more readily accomplished than with the use of coal. The board is of the opinion, however, that no attempt should be made to use oil as auxiliary or supplementary to coal.

GEN. BOBRIKOFF DEAD.

The Governor General Succumbed to Wounds Received By An Assassin.

Helsingfors, Finland, June 18.—The Russian flag at half-mast over the governor's palace Friday morning proclaimed to the people of Helsingfors that Gen. Bobrikoff, governor general of Finland, was dead. There was no excitement in the city and no attempt at a demonstration was made. The father, mother, brother and sisters of Schaumann, the assassin of Bobrikoff, were arrested and subjected to a searching examination, but late Friday evening they were released and allowed to return to their country home.

How far the Swedish party is implicated in the killing of the governor general has not been established, but the authorities are convinced that Schaumann had accomplices who found in the brooding, half fanatical student a ready tool.

THE FLOOD IN CUBA.

More Than One Hundred Persons Lost Their Lives.

Santiago de Cuba, June 18.—The recent fall of 14 inches of rain in five hours, accompanying a hurricane, has resulted in the death of more than a hundred persons. The most severe loss was at the village of El Cobre, where about 60 persons were drowned. The river rose instantly, destroying the lower part of the village. Bodies were carried eight miles to the bay. Thirty bodies were recovered. Six persons were drowned at Daiquiri, 14 at El Caney and many in the surrounding country. The list is still incomplete. All the bridges at Cobre, several at Daiquiri and four of the Central railroad and miles of track have been destroyed.

THE PROHIBITIONISTS.

They Nominated a Woman For Secretary of State.

Boston, June 18.—The Massachusetts prohibitionists made a departure from custom at their state convention here Friday when they placed a woman on their state ticket by nominating Mrs. Fannie J. Clary, of Williamsburg, for secretary of state.

Dr. Oliver W. Cobb, of East Hampton, was named for governor, Frank P. Dyer, of Arlington, for lieutenant governor. The platform decreed liquor traffic, favored reciprocity with Canada and called for equal suffrage.

AT LINCOLN'S TOMB.

An Ex-Confederate Officer Paid a Tribute to the Martyred President.

Springfield, Ill., June 18.—Standing beside the tomb of Lincoln Friday afternoon Col. W. M. Bumpiss, formerly an officer in the confederate army, paid an eloquent tribute to the martyred president. His speech was a feature of the visit of 250 members of the Local Freight Association of America, who came here from Peoria, where they held their annual convention. Col. Bumpiss is agent for the Louisville & Nashville road at Nashville, Tenn.

Captain of Detroit American Team.

Detroit, June 18.—Second Baseman Robert Lowe was Friday appointed captain of the Detroit American league baseball team. He succeeds Capt. Greninger, who resigned after holding the position through three games.

Senator Quay's Will Probated.

Beaver, Pa., June 18.—The will of Senator Quay was probated Friday. Not only does it not disclose the amount of his estate, but provides that the executors shall not file an accounting.

Received An Ovation.

Westfield, Mass., June 18.—Secretary of the Department of Commerce and Labor George B. Cortelyou received an ovation here Friday when he revisited the town where he formerly attended school.

Jaw Dislocated By a Yawn.

Shelbyville, Ind., June 18.—Mrs. Melissa Barlow, of southwest street, gave a yawn Friday morning and dislocated her jaw. Her jaw was locked so that she could not open her mouth. The assistance of a physician was needed to afford relief.

Temporary Injunction Dissolved.

Topeka, Kan., June 18.—In the district court Friday Judge Hazen dissolved the temporary injunction against the striking Santa Fe railway machinists secured by the railroad company on May 9.

RHEUMATISM

Bone or Back Pains, Swollen Joints

CURED THROUGH THE BLOOD

By Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.)

TO PROVE IT, B.B.B. SENT FREE. We want every reader of this paper who has rheumatism to send us his or her name. We will send them by return mail a sample of Botanic Blood Balm, the wonderful blood remedy, which has cured, to stay cured, more old deep-seated, obstinate cases of rheumatism than all other remedies, doctors, hot springs or liniments combined. Botanic Blood Balm kills the uric acid poison in the blood, in its place giving pure red, nourishing blood, sending a rich, tingling flood of warm blood direct to the paralyzed nerves, bones and joints, giving warmth and strength just where it is needed, and in this way making a perfect cure. B. B. B. has cured hundreds of cases where the sufferer has been doubled up for years, or where the joints had been swollen so long they were almost brittle and perfectly rigid and stiff, yet B. B. B. unites the joints, straightened out the bent back and made a perfect, lasting cure after all other remedies had failed.

Leading Symptoms. Bone pains, sciatica, or shooting pains up and down the leg, aching back or shoulder blades, swollen joints or swollen muscles, difficulty in moving around so you have to use crutches, or in some cases where the sufferer has been doubled up for years, or where the joints had been swollen so long they were almost brittle and perfectly rigid and stiff, yet B. B. B. unites the joints, straightened out the bent back and made a perfect, lasting cure after all other remedies had failed.

Weak, Inactive Kidneys. One of the causes of Rheumatism is due to kidneys and bladder. Pains in the joints and a feeling of a dull, heavy weight in lower parts of the bowels, urinous taste in mouth or disagreeable odor of the urine are some of the leading symptoms. For this trouble there is no better medicine than B. B. B. It stimulates all the nerves of the kidneys into action, opens up every channel, resulting in healthy natural flow of urine, the passing off of the uric acid and all other diseased matter, and a lasting cure made. B. B. B. makes the kidneys and bladder strong and healthy.

OUR GUARANTEE.—Take a large bottle of Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.) as directed on label, and when the right quantity is taken a cure is certain, sure and lasting. If not cured your money will promptly be refunded without argument.

Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.) is Pleasant and safe to take. Thoroughly tested for 30 years. Composed of Pure Botanic Ingredients. Strengthens Weak Kidneys and Stomachs, cures Dyspepsia. Sold by all Druggists, 25¢ Per Large Bottle, with complete directions for home cure. Sample Sent Free by writing Botanic Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga. Describe your trouble, and special free medical advice, to suit your case, will be sent in sealed letter.

Early Adjournment.

In late years the first session of congress has usually lasted long into the warm weather, even in "presidential" years. The adjournment of the Fifty-eighth congress this year was unusually early. The Eighty congress closed its first session on March 27, 1804, more than a month earlier. But then, a country of 80,000,000 people has more business for its legislators than a country of 6,000,000.—Youth's Companion.

Use of Asphalt.

Asphalt was first used for street pavements in Paris in 1838, and since then the demand for this purpose has warranted an annual production throughout the world of 450,000 to 500,000 metric tons of asphalt and bituminous rock. The consumption in the United States alone in the year 1903 was over 250,000 tons, which is equivalent to more than one-half the average production in the world.—Industrial Journal.

His Graduation Exercises.

Asked, the other day, as to the absence of a youthful member of his flock, Brother Williams replied that he was "in his graduation exercises—in prison. You see," he explained, "hit was disavowed. He started humble—in de chain gang; but, by perseverance in strict attention ter business, he finally graduated ter fed'ul prison of de United States!"—Atlanta Constitution.

Reclaiming Land.

The island of Nordstrand, the only portion of once fertile North Friesland which is yet unreclaimed, is now to be saved from the sea by the construction of a large dike. The island was first separated from the mainland by a terrific storm in 1634, during which over 6,000 persons were drowned.—Geographical Journal.

ON A STEEP GRADE.

Sixteen Injured, Three Fatally, in a Railway Collision.

The Cars Were New and Were So Constructed As To Make It Almost Impossible To Telescope Them.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 20.—Thundering down a steep grade Sunday, B. & O. passenger train No. 1, westbound, near Vincennes, crashed into an open switch, colliding with a freight train of 30 cars, resulting in the injury to 16 persons, three of whom may die.

Seriously injured: John Eisenhart, 9 years old, with Philadelphia party en route to St. Louis; head badly cut, internally injured; may die. J. L. Witter, of Cincinnati, head cut, internally injured; may die. Ed Mason, Covington, Ky., porter on dining car; internal injuries, and wounded on head; may die.

Severely injured: Miss Maud Steinhart, Burlington, Ia., face badly cut; Peter Miller, Cincinnati; Crawford Corner, Elkhart, Ind.; Mrs. W. E. Drier, Pittston, Pa.; Rev. M. M. Porter, Vincennes, Ind.; H. G. H. Humphrey, Gordon, Mo.; Capt. George W. Vandusen, artillery corps, Fort Leavenworth, Kan.; Hugh Cox, Washington, Ind.; C. W. Brown, Dallas, Tex.; Chris Walters, engineer passenger train; R. L. Phillips, fireman on passenger train; James Eastridge, fireman on freight train; James Kennedy, engineer freight train. Many others were slightly injured.

Engineer Walters, of the passenger train, estimates that his train was running at the rate of 50 miles an hour when he discovered that the switch was turned. He says he immediately applied the air and jumped from his engine.

The interior of the dining car, which was the most badly damaged, was bespattered with blood and the furniture was a mass of debris.

Vincennes has no hospital, and while the physicians there were administering the first aid to the injured, the wrecking crew hurriedly cleared the track in order that the injured might be taken immediately to St. Louis, where they could receive hospital attention.

An engine was brought from Flora and attached to the passenger train, which proceeded to St. Louis. The cars in the passenger train were new and so constructed as to make it almost impossible to telescope them.

EVACUATION DAY.

President Roosevelt Delivered An Oratorial at the Celebration.

Philadelphia, June 20.—On the historic spot at Valley Forge where Washington and his "Gallant boys of '76" suffered in order that the United States might become a nation, President Roosevelt delivered a notable address Sunday.

This was "Evacuation day" at Valley Forge, and the anniversary was celebrated appropriately in the little edifice which has been erected on what is to be the site of the Washington Monument church. It was to add to his sympathy and encouragement to the project of marking the spot by a suitable memorial that President Roosevelt made his address.

Accompanied by Mrs. Roosevelt, the attorney general and Mrs. Knox, President Roosevelt drove to Valley Forge from Mr. Knox's country home, Valley Forge farm, to attend divine services at 3:45 p. m. in the Washington Memorial chapel. Several hundred people had assembled at the chapel, but only a part of them could gain entrance as its capacity is very limited. The president and party were seated near the altar which was simply draped with a silk American flag.

After the simple service of the Episcopal church had been concluded, Rev. Herbert Burk, rector of All Saints church at Norristown, Pa., introduced the president, who made a patriotic address.

Rev. Leighton Coleman, bishop of Delaware, followed the president with a speech in which he elaborated some of the points made by Mr. Roosevelt. Brief addresses were also made by former Attorney General Wayne MacVeagh and Representative Wagner.

From Valley Forge the president and party returned to Attorney General Knox's home.

For the president the day was a busy one. He spent the morning in company with Attorney General Knox, Mrs. Roosevelt and Mrs. Knox, in driving over the ground made historic by Washington and his men. They visited the headquarters of Washington, the president insisting upon paying the small fee which all visitors are charged for viewing the place. The camp ground and battlefield were examined carefully. A visit also was paid to the first house in this country occupied by Audobon, the eminent naturalist.

The night was passed without noteworthy incident at Valley Forge farm.

Memorial Services Held.

Chattanooga, Tenn., June 20.—The annual memorial service of the A. O. U. W., which is meeting here, was held Sunday at Centenary Methodist church. Service was in honor of deceased officers of the supreme, grand and district grand lodges.

President Visits Historic Ground. Philadelphia, June 20.—President Roosevelt who with Mrs. Roosevelt spent Sunday with Attorney General Knox on his farm at Valley Forge, visited the historic camp ground of Gen. Washington Sunday.

CONVENTION GOSSIP.

Vice Presidency and the Tariff Plank the Principal Subjects.

Chicago, June 20.—The vice presidency and the tariff plank in the platform were the principal subjects of discussion among the delegates to the republican national convention Sunday and Sunday evening. The state delegations will meet Monday to organize and select members of the various committees and it is expected that declarations will be made on the vice presidency which will determine who will be the candidate.

From present appearances Senator Fairbanks will be the choice, as a sufficient number of leaders have declared for him and announced the probable support of their delegations for him to indicate his selection. The Indiana senator was seen for a few minutes in the corridors of the Auditorium Annex and was warmly greeted by a throng of men who indicated to him their desire to see him named for second place on the ticket. He remained non-committal, as usual, his position being that the nomination can neither be sought nor refused. The knowledge that the senator will not refuse has been communicated to the delegates and has largely increased the prospects of his nomination.

The movement Sunday for Representative Hitt seems to have been participated to some extent by those who felt that Fairbanks should make a declaration. Then again the Illinois men feel that in view of the action of their state convention they must make an earnest effort for Mr. Hitt. It is a fact, however, that the recent illness of Mr. Hitt at Washington has dampened the ardor of his supporters who acknowledge that this will work to his disadvantage.

Two active vice presidential aspirants were about the Auditorium corridors during the evening, John Lee Webster, of Nebraska, and John W. Springer, of Colorado.

Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, arrived with a draft of the platform in his pocket. He has been notified that he will be recognized to move the appointment of the committee on resolutions and this means his selection as chairman of the committee. All interest in the platform centers in the tariff plank and the sentiment is that there will be a straight declaration for protection without promises for future tariff revision or reciprocity. Senator Hansbrough has a draft of a resolution promising both, but it met with little favor among the republican leaders.

Illinois has decided to make an active, aggressive campaign for Hitt for vice president. A caucus was held Sunday afternoon in the state headquarters and a formal plan of campaign in the interest of the Illinois congressman was adopted, after a discussion between the leading men of the delegation, it was arranged that Senator Shelby M. Cullom, of Illinois, should present the name of Mr. Hitt to the convention and seconding speeches will be arranged for by at least two delegates, one from the Middle Mississippi valley and the other probably from New York.

Washington, June 20.—Congressman Hitt, of Illinois, who is suffering from the effects of an attack of acute indigestion and a severe cold, was better Sunday. He is still confined to his room.

MILITIA CALLED OUT.

They Are Scouring the Country For the Murderer of a Sheriff.

St. Paul, Minn., June 20.—Sheriff Harry Harris, of St. Croix county, Wis., was shot three times in the head and instantly killed Saturday night while he was attempting to arrest an unknown man on board an Omaha train near Little Falls, Wis. Company C, Wisconsin national guard, of Hudson, went to Little Falls Saturday night by order of Gov. La Follette, and aided by posses from Hudson and Baldwin, Wis., is scouring the surrounding country for the murderer, who made a successful escape from the train.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

Members of Ohio Brigade, Uniform Rank, Arrive at St. Louis.

St. Louis, June 20.—The first installment of the largest semi-military body that has yet visited the World's fair arrived Sunday. A special train arrived at Union station bringing over a thousand members of the Ohio brigade, uniform rank, Knights of Pythias. The men were taken to the World's fair grounds and encamped near the administration building. The Pythians will remain until June 26. They will give daily exhibition drills, beginning with guard mount each morning.

Gen. Miles For Vice President.

Pittsburg, Pa., June 20.—Lieut. Gen. Nelson A. Miles was the guest of Col. J. M. Guffey, democratic leader of Pennsylvania, and local political gossip declares that Miles will be the democratic vice presidential nominee.

A School For Crime.

London, June 20.—Women are starting on many new careers, some to be commended, some to be regretted; but a lady burglars' school of crime, started by Annie Morgan, known as "The Lady Burglar," certainly takes its place among the latter.

Bryan in New York.

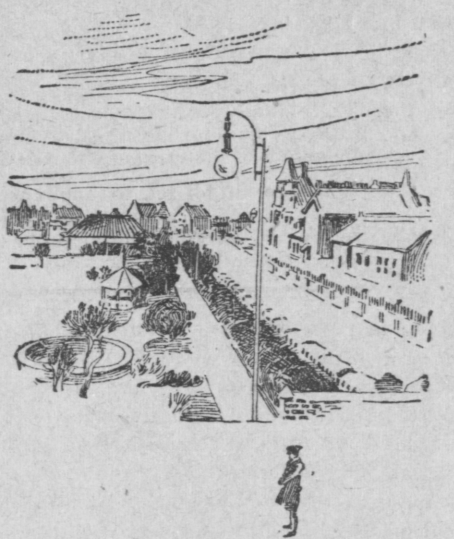

New York, June 20.—William Jennings Bryan arrived in this city Sunday night. He said in an interview he did not expect to see Charles F. Murphy or any leader of the anti-Parker movement, while in the city.

THE PORT OF DALNY

RUSSIA'S OFFICIAL COMMERCIAL CENTER IN MANCHURIA.

A Boom Town Built Entirely by the Czar's Government—It Will Be of Great Importance to the Japanese.

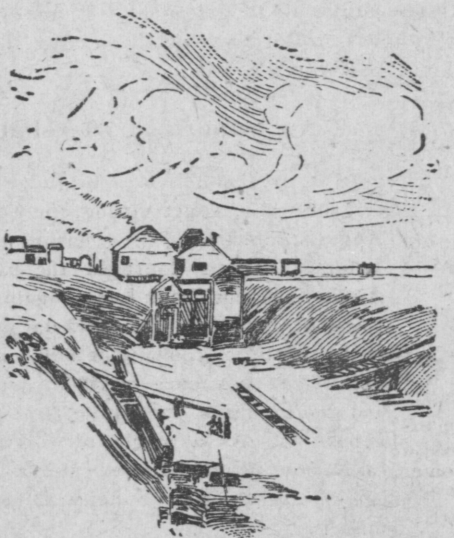

Dalny, which has fallen into the hands of the Japanese, is a new port on Victoria bay, an inlet of Tallen bay, about 20 miles north of Port Arthur. It is picturesquely situated, and is surrounded on three sides by hills. Mr. H. J. Whigham, in his book, "Manchuria and Korea," describes Dalny as a "boom" town without any reason for a

GENERAL VIEW OF DALNY.

"boom," but different in the respect that the mushroom growth is the work of a government which is determined to build itself a metropolis complete in every detail. "Another power," he wrote, "would have been content to build its railway and begin the harbor tentatively, and let trade do the rest. Not so Russia. Dalny is to spring into the world full-grown and armed at every point, Minerva-like, from the brains of the Russian Jove. The harbor, which has to be constructed at enormous expense, by filling and dredging the bay by the square mile, with moles and breakwaters and dry docks, is to be capable of accommodating the largest ships afloat alongside its wharves, and will eventually take in all the shipping which could be got together at any time in the east. The sea front and warehouses are to stand on ground which was in 1901 under the water at low tide. The administrative portion of the town is already in existence."

When we examined the plan of the harbor two years ago it seemed almost chimerical, so immense was the work mapped out for the contractors. To-day the plan is realized, and only the shipping is wanted. Dalny is, after all, the best, if not the only, place which could have been selected. Apart from the Trans-Siberian railway, Dalny has great importance as the future port of Manchuria. Dalny has a great future before it. The predictions of Mr. Whigham made in 1901 have been amply fulfilled, and Dalny is in many respects a model town. The Russians began their building operations in 1900, when several Chinese villages standing on the site were demolished. Then the town gradually began to take shape. The governor's house, churches and well-built houses sprang up; roads were laid out, and soon there was a town fit for 100,000 inhabitants. The town is divided into three distinct sections—the administrative town, the commercial and European town and the Chinese town. In the first of these, which borders on the sea, is the governor's house and the residences of the railway officials, the Russo-Chinese bank and other public buildings. In the center of the commercial city is Nicholas place, a circle from which the main thoroughfares radiate.

An Amusing Story.

There is a good story in the contemporary about Sir Frederick Bridge and a certain mechanical piano player. He paid a visit to a country house, and found every one in raptures over Bach's Fugue in D minor, as rendered by the tuneful machine. He listened with awe, but quite failed to recognize the work. It turned out, on inquiry, that the piece had been inserted upside down, and had consequently been played backward.—London Globe.

Seizing His Advantage.

The domestic jar grew more jarring. "It isn't so, John Henry, and you know it!" shrilly exclaimed Mrs. Vick-Sén. "You may say what you please, but—" Promptly availing himself of the unexpected permission, John Henry proceeded to say what he pleased, for the first time in the history of the family, to the overwhelming surprise of his good game, who found herself unable to interrupt him for fully five minutes.—Chicago Tribune.

LONG ISLAND.

It is quite probable that Long Island presents more exceptional attractions than any other section of the entire country. It attracts the man who is looking for an investment, a farm, a residence or a summer home, and it is a perfect paradise to those who can spend their vacations by the briny deep.

The climatic peculiarities of the island fit it especially for the raising of vegetables, fruits and flowers, chickens, pigeons and game birds.

The temperature in the summer running from 10 to 15 degrees cooler than the city, or any other section within reasonable distance and in winter, never less than 10 degrees warmer than the same territory. The island trends almost east and west and therefore lies directly across the path of the prevailing summer winds, which come from the south and bring with them the invigorating and coolness of ocean winds. Its very place in columns giving health statistics of all sections is primarily due to the fact that even in its fertile central section it is everywhere perfectly underdrained by glacial drift and gravel.

Surrounded as it is on three sides by great bodies of water, the north, east and south winds reach it absolutely without chance of contamination—even its western end is isolated by the great broadening of New York Harbor.

Its water supply is notably fine. Springs, brooks and even lakes have their source in the higher parts of the island, proving conclusively the theory of many geologists that its source of supply is situated high up in the north of Vermont, and that under Long Island flow great subterranean streams similar to those of Yucatan, Mexico; as further proof of this, there are wonderful flowing wells on various parts of the island many of which have records extending over 35 years and without diminution in the quantity.

Its north shore slopes down from the highest points of Long Island's backbone (as the high range of hills is called) to the beautiful bays and harbors extending the full length of the Sound shore. These slopes are covered with a most thrifty growth of oak, hickory, chestnut, locust, walnut and other deciduous trees and shrubs to the very edge of Long Island Sound.

The central section is fertile farm land with splendid crop records and capable of producing handsome returns on the investment.

Its south shore, in part lying on that inland sea called the Great South Bay, and in part on the Atlantic Ocean, has attractions of tree growth including pine.

The settlements, many of them established 250 years ago, are thoroughly progressive towns and villages, and the school system compares most favorably with that of our great cities in that from the kindergarten to the high school the departments are most proficiently handled.

All portions of the island are extremely well cared for by transportation facilities. The Long Island railroad system with branches to every section has a train schedule of over 800 trains daily. Many trolley systems are already in operation and others in the course of construction.

Steam boat lines connect with Block Island and the New England coast. Long Island points fifty miles away from Metropolitan interests are readily accessible, and as quickly reached as the towns and near-by suburbs of the Empire City.

The price for land, either in acreage or house lots, is exceedingly reasonable, in comparison with other territories.

Farms with dwellings and other buildings in excellent condition are available for fruit growing, a business with great possibilities and phenomenal returns. Immense tracts present exceptionally good facilities for cranberry, strawberry and other small fruit culture which are still undeveloped, and Long Island berries command the best market prices. Like its asparagus, cauliflower, Blue Point oysters and Little Neck clams, the island's newer productions are rapidly taking front rank. Its duck, chicken and pigeon farms are money makers hard to beat.

Its game and fish preserves are known to all true sportsmen who take their recreation, and gain healthful rest with either the rod or gun.

Its waters stand high in the estimation of those who love to be afloat. The canoeist cannot but enjoy the wonderfully interesting voyage through Rockaway Bay, Great South Bay, Moriches Bay, Peconic and Gardiners Bay a paddle around Plum Island or through the Gut skimming along the high bluffs at the east end of the sound shore, weaving in and out through the harbors and bays at Port Jefferson, Smithtown, Huntington, Cold Spring, Oyster Bay, Hempstead Harbor, Manhasset, Little Neck and Flushing.

In Long Island waters are first tried the great yachts selected to defend the cup, the favorite cruising ground for all sailors from the man with the little cat boat to the owner of the palatial steam yacht—the rendezvous of the members of America's great yacht clubs.

The golf links and tennis courts of the island are noted abroad as well as in the United States, and on Long Island links are annually played many championship matches.

Its bathing attractions are unlimited; for the lover of still salt water bathing the opportunities are many indeed. To those who prefer invigorating wrestles that the surf of old ocean brings, from Coney Island to Long Beach, the length of Fire Island and from Good Ground to Montauk Point the places are many from which to choose.

LIVE STOCK, CROP, ETC.

—Shropshire Bros., of this city, sold to a Mr. Proctor, of New York, a gaited saddle horse for $800.

—W. H. Whaley, Jr., has up to the present time shipped over 3,000 lambs to Jersey City, for which he paid from 3 to 5 1/4 cents.

—T. S. Cooper, Coopersburg, Pa., sold 91 head of imported Jersey cows, heifers, calves and bulls for $44,400, making a general average of $388.50 per head.

—Two carloads of yearlings, the property of Runnymede and Raceland studs, of this county, have been shipped to New York, where they will be sold on June 23-24.

—At Runnymede, this county, 42 foals by such celebrated sires as Sir Dixon, Star Shoot, Brigewater, Howland, etc., have been registered within the past three weeks. They are the property of Col. E. F. Clay.

—Last week Joseph Landner, of Missouri, sold to the beef trust 500 head of sloped cattle, which he had collected from the feeding pens of the distilleries around Louisville, at an average of 5 1/2 cents per pound. The cattle averaged 13.0 pounds per head.

—For the past ten months of the present fiscal year there has been exported from this country 464,551 head of cattle against 286,003 for the same ten months one year previous. Generally low prices here and good demand abroad have been accountable for this condition, which indicates an increase of 177,488 head of cattle.

—Rose's Glory, a fine Jersey cow belonging to Col. W. L. Scott, of Scott's Station, has been selected by the American Jersey Cattle club as one of the twenty-five cows to make the milk and butter test at the World's Fair. Fifty cows were selected first, from which the twenty-five were chosen; only two of these were taken from Kentucky.

—W. M. Schefel's bay colt, Highball, won the seventeenth American Derby at Chicago by one length and a half in front of Woodson. Rapid Water was third a length back, with English Lad, the favorite, fourth. The time, 2:38, equaled the record for the Derby set by The Picket last year. Highball led practically from start to finish.

Application For Liquor License.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned will at the meeting of the Council on Saturday, June 25, 1904, apply to the Mayor and Board of Council of Paris, Ky., for license to sell at retail and to be drunk on the premises, spirituous, vinous and malt liquors for the ensuing year at his place of business on the corner of Eighth and High street.

WM. MARINGER.

THORNE GETS ANOTHER CHANCE.—The members of the State Capitol Commission will leave for Jackson, Miss., to-day to inspect the State Capitol building there. The commissioners will be absent four days, during which time Lieut. Gov. Thorne will be Acting Governor.

HE NEEDED IT.—Henry Bratton, a boy eight years of age, living at Morgantown, made two attempts at suicide in one day. He went into the family orchard first and hanged himself with his suspenders. He was cut down by companions. Later he went to a blacksmith shop near by and hanged himself again. He was cut down by the blacksmith, who gave him a good spanking and sent him home.

PREACHERS WIN.—Justice Gaynor, of the Supreme Court, sitting as Magistrate in Brooklyn, Saturday, handed down an opinion in which he holds that games of professional baseball, such as have been played at Washington Park this season, games to which an admission fee is charged, are illegal on Sunday, being prohibited by the Sunday law. In this opinion the preachers who have been fighting professional Sunday baseball, have won their point.

A NEW CURE.—The "Music Cure" has been taken up by Boston society and its devotees are said to be numbered by the hundreds. Its advocates assert that music has an extraordinary power to cure many ills, especially those of a nervous origin. In one instance an aggravated attack of neuralgia of three weeks standing is reported to have been cured in half an hour by the playing of music in a minor key on a piano. No particular instrument is favored, but a violin is most frequently employed.

DEMOCRAT WINS CONTEST.—In the contest case for Circuit Judge of the Eighth district Special Judge Osborne, at Bowling Green, Saturday, decided that B. W. Bradburn, Democrat, the contestant, was elected by 342 majority over John M. Galloway, who on the face of the returns was shown to be elected by 268 majority, and who was given the certificate of election. In his opinion Judge Osborne cites numerous instances of fraud and one precinct out in Butler county and one out in Elmonson county.

DENTAL EXAMINER APPOINTED.—The Governor Saturday appointed Dr. E. D. Rose, of Bowling Green, a member of the State Board of Medical Examiners, under the new law passed at the General Assembly. Formerly the members were chosen by the Kentucky State Dental Association, and the old members chosen by that association will continue in office under the provisions of the act until their terms expire. One new member is chosen each year by the Governor from a list submitted by the State Dental Association. The members of the Board as now constituted are: M. H. Dailey, Paris; C. R. Shacklette, Louisville; J. Richard Wallace, Louisville; C. W. Megular, Muncifordville; E. D. Rose, Bowling Green.

DO NOT DOSE THE STOMACH

Cure Catarrh by Nature's Own Method—Every Breath of Hyomei Brings Relief.

Nearly everyone who has catarrh knows how foolish it is to try and cure it by dosing the stomach. Temporary relief may be given, but a cure seldom comes. Until recently your physician would have said the only way to cure catarrh would be to have a change of climate; but now with Hyomei you can carry a health giving climate in your vest pocket and by breathing it a few minutes four times a day soon cure yourself.

The complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1.00 and consists of an inhaler that can be carried in the vest pocket, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei. The inhaler lasts a lifetime, and if one bottle does not cure, an extra bottle of Hyomei can be obtained for fifty cents. It is the most economical of all remedies advertised for the cure of catarrh, and is the only one that follows nature in her method of treating diseases of the respiratory organs. Clarke & Co. have sold a great many Hyomei outfits and the more they sell, the more convinced they are that they are perfectly safe in guaranteeing to refund the money if Hyomei does not cure.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

FOR JAILER

We are authorized to announce Geo. W. Judy as a candidate for re-election for Jailer of Bourbon county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce Geo. W. Bowen as a candidate for Jailer of Bourbon County, subject to the action of the Democratic party, with James A. Gibson as Deputy.

FOR COUNTY JUDGE.

We are authorized to announce Denis Dundon as a candidate for Judge of Bourbon county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

COUNTY ATTORNEY.

We are authorized to announce Charles A. McMillan as a candidate for County Attorney of Bourbon county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce T. E. Moore, Jr., as a candidate for County Attorney of Bourbon county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

In this issue we announce George W. Bowen of the Ruddells Mills precinct, as a candidate for Jailer of Bourbon county. Mr. Bowen was sheriff of this county for four years, and made a most efficient and popular officer, one of the best the county ever had. He was a captain in the Confederate army, and has at all times been a straight and active party man. He has a large following of personal friends and if elected will make the county a faithful officer. His deputy, Jas. A. Gibson, has acted as deputy sheriff and as deputy jailer, is formerly of the Flat Rock precinct, and has a large following, and fully qualified to fill the place of deputy jailer. This is a strong combination.

It's No Use.

The Paris Democrat, edited last week, by Mr. Frank Remington, the well-known authority on everything in general, takes us to task about an item in regard to the recent strike in Paris. He said THE NEWS must have been hard up for an item, &c. We are never in that fix, but we could name a Paris paper that frequently suffers from that complaint, and it is said it is chronic with them. As a race of people, the negro is ungrateful, there are exceptions, of course, but a few, and no one will deny it, unless it is Booker Washington or Frank Remington. We detect newspaper controversy, life is too short, and don't propose to get into one with our friend for he is "so in his ways" and awful stubborn at times and we would never be able to convince him that we were right, but "sure Mike," if we want advice as to what we publish we will be compelled to pass this critic by, for we know how hard he is to please. Just for instance, a short time ago there was a Democratic convention held in Paris; resolutions endorsing one of Bourbon's brightest young men for Congress were offered and carried, there being only one dissenting voice, and that happened to be Mr. Frank Remington. No use talking, he is hard to get along with and we will have to let his criticism on us go for what it is worth.

An Important Decision.

In an opinion delivered by Judge Paynter, the whole court sitting, the Court of Appeals, in affirming the decision of the Jefferson Circuit Court in the case of Auditor's Agent Frank Lucas against the Bank of Commerce for taxes on deposit in the institution, holds that banks are not required to pay taxes on their deposits, and that the taxes should be paid by the depositors. As a result of this agreed case about three hundred similar suits against banks in the State will be dismissed.

This decision of the Court of Appeals is doubtless precisely what most of the members of the legal profession expected. As, however, there appeared to be some difference of opinion on this point, it is well that the question has been definitely settled. The decision will put an end to a great deal of litigation, and prevent the institution of a great many other suits that would have followed a different ruling as to the law.

Boys, You Had Better Vamose.

The Pineville Independent, in commenting on the fact that fifteen students of Kentucky University will go to the mountains this Summer as missionaries under the auspices of the American Board of Christian Missions. Among other things says: "We don't want them, don't need them and have no more use for them than for a Virginia land grant. We have plenty of God-fearing preachers who expound the gospel with vigor and persistence. We do not want this condescending, patronizing bunch of theological cubs in our mountains. Our advice is to send them back home. The strong mountain air is not healthy for such an outfit. If these young men will come to us with surveyor's instruments in their hands and proceed to lay out railroads and highways and coal mines they will be welcome, otherwise they should better vamose."

Miss Birdie Mae Smith, of Aurora, Ind., was queen of the contest, polling 202,874 votes. She is a Kentucky girl.

THE BEST.—Buy the Enamel House Paint to paint your house and you will get the very best. CHAS COOLEY.

WILL BEND TO THE LAW.—The trustees of Berea College are arranging to conform to the new Kentucky law providing against the co-education of whites and blacks. Pending the result of the litigation instituted, the younger colored pupils at Berea will be transferred to the colored public school, and those of higher grades will be provided for at Fisk University, Nashville, or some other similar institution.

It Was a Hot One.

Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin remarked last week after court adjourned until November, holding a two-days' session, that the grand jury was the warmest body of gentlemen that had been on a grand jury for many a day. He says that in the two days they brought in enough indictments to make the fines in November amount to $4,000.

It is being whispered around that they were about to go into an investigation of the Fiscal Court books, with a view to ascertaining whether or not some of the Magistrates had drawn for a greater number of days than they rendered services to the county. But this is mere rumor, anyway we give below a verbatim report of the grand jury in regard to the County Court, viz:

"There has been suggested to this Grand Jury that an investigation of 'accounts against the County of Bourbon on account of service rendered' ought to be made, and this jury respectfully asks His Honor to give that matter in charge to the next Grand Jury for thorough investigation, when there will be time properly and perfectly to make such investigation."

NOTICE.—Dr. Bowen, the optician, will be at A. J. Winters & Co's on June 30th. Examination free.

The Bond Extended.

Special agent Wood, traveling representative of the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Co., sureties on the bond of the Court House contractors, Crawford & Gibson, was in town Friday, in the interest of his company. The contract of bond expires July 1st, and as the work on the Court House will not be completed by that time it will be necessary for a new bond or extension of the old one.

The Court House Committee notified the Surety Company that unless the bond was extended an action of damages would be filed before July 1st. The bond provided that no action could be brought after that date. This action was taken to protect the county from any liability. Mr. Wood said his company would grant the extension.

Saturday Night Pastime.

Charlie Brown and Ed. Skinner, both colored, met in front of Hinton & Morris' upper stable, on Main street, Saturday night, about midnight, whereupon Brown drew a pistol and fired at Skinner without a word passing between them. Skinner threw his arm up before his face, which no doubt saved his life, as the ball passed through his wrist, landing in center of forehead, cutting through to the bone. It seems that they had had some previous trouble in Claysville, and this was their first meeting since. Brown was arrested by Officer Elgin and lodged in jail.

Another Entrance to Cemetery.

We are glad to state that the officers of the Paris Cemetery Company at a meeting Saturday decided to make another entrance to the cemetery. It will be a great relief to many of our ladies to know this. Mr. J. T. Hinton, the president, says it had been contemplated for some time, but the little reminder in the News last week helped matters along. The entrance will not be made on Cypress, but at the end of the street through Ingels Division. Councilman O'Brien, Chairman of the Improvement Committee, says he offered some time ago to macadamize across Sixteenth street part of which is a dirt road, right to the place they desire to go into the cemetery, and will yet see that it is done. This matter should not lag, but be pushed to a finish, as we consider it an improvement for the public good and should not be delayed. Mr. Hinton considers Sixteenth street the proper place for the gate, but opposed the one placed on Cypress, as it was used as a regular public passway. The new gate will be used exclusively for funerals.

GOOD STUFF.—VanHook, James E. Pepper and Tarr Whisky, the very best, can be found at T. F. Brannon's saloon. None better. For medical use they are the best. 1may1m

Good Price for Cattle.

The advance in the cattle market has brought several buyers into this section in the last few days. Mr. L. Joseph bought 23 head from Mr. J. B. Kennedy Saturday, paying 6 cents. They average about 1,600 pounds, and it is the highest price received here for some time. Mr. Kennedy said some time ago that he would hold them until he received 6 cents for them, and it will be seen that he acted wisely. It is thought by cattle men that the price will go much higher. We would advise the farmer to wait, for the market is steadily advancing.

Heavy Loser In Hogs.

Mr. W. J. Davis, of near Muir, was in town yesterday and said that out of 90 hogs on his place in the last year, he has had 50 stolen, never even seeing a single dead hog on the place or hearing from any of them with the exception of those in the possession of the negro Tom Miller, who was driving them along the road, and in trying to get away after his arrest was shot by Jailer Geo. Judy. This is only one instance where the farmer suffers from these midnight marauders, and no punishment is too severe for them.

A Continual Strain.

Many men and women are constantly subjected to what they commonly term "a continual strain" because of some financial or family trouble. It wears and distresses them both mentally and physically, affecting their nerves badly and bringing on liver and kidney ailments, with the attendant evils of constipation, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, low vitality and despondency. They cannot, as a rule, get rid of this "continual strain," but they can remedy its health-destroying effects by taking frequent doses of Green's August Flower. It tones up the liver, stimulates the kidneys, insures healthy bodily functions, gives vim and spirit to one's whole being, and eventually dispels the physical or mental distress caused by that "continual strain." Trial bottle of August Flower, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.—W. T. Brooks

Healthy Mothers.

Mothers should always keep in good bodily health. They owe it to their children. Yet it is no unusual sight to see a mother, with babe in arms, coughing violently and exhibiting all the symptoms of a consumptive tendency. And why should this dangerous condition exist, dangerous alike to mother and child, when Dr. Boschee's German Syrup would put a stop to it at once? No mother should be without this old and tried remedy in the house—for its timely use will promptly cure any lung, throat or bronchial trouble in herself or her children. The worst cough or cold can be speedily cured by German Syrup; so can hoarseness and congestion of the bronchial tubes. It makes expectoration easy, and gives instant relief and refreshing rest to the cough-racked consumptive. New trial bottles, 25c; large size 75c. At all druggists.—W. T. Brooks.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

FOR SHERIFF.

We are authorized to announce E. P. Clarke as a candidate for Sheriff of Bourbon County, with Albert S. Thompson and Wm. F. Talbot as deputies, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce Harvey Bibler as a candidate for Sheriff of Bourbon County, with Brutus J. Clay, Jr., and James Burke as deputies, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

FOR ASSESSOR.

We are authorized to announce Henry S. Caywood as a candidate for Assessor of Bourbon County, with J. U. Boardman as Deputy, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS.

We are authorized to announce F. L. McChesney as a candidate for the office of County Superintendent, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce Miss Wallace Montague as a candidate for the office of Superintendent of Public Schools of Bourbon county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE.

We are authorized to announce W. W. Shropshire as a candidate for the office of Representative of Bourbon county in the next General Assembly, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce T. Porter Smith as a candidate for the office of Representative of Bourbon county in the next General Assembly, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

FOR JUDGE OF COURT OF APPEALS.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE FIFTH APPELLATE COURT OF KENTUCKY:—I am a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals from this District, subject to the action of the Democratic party. As Circuit Judge, it became my duty to try a number of criminal cases, which have become a part of the State's history and at a most critical time. As Judge of the State Fiscal Court, it fell to my lot to construe the Statutes adopted, to put in force the provisions of the new Constitution, as well as to construe the present Constitution whenever a controversy arose as to its proper construction. Almost innumerable cases have burdened the dockets of my court, touching the rights of corporations and the exercise of franchise under law. How well I have discharged my duties under such trying circumstances, is left to you to determine.

I will be very grateful to all who feel they can assist me to secure the high position and office to which I aspire.

Very respectfully,
JAMES E. CANTRILL.

FOR CONGRESS.

We are authorized to announce W. P. Kimball, of Fayette county, as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress from Seventh District, subject to the action of the district convention to be held in the city of Lexington on Thursday, May 12, 1904.

I am a candidate for re-election to Congress from this District, subject to the action of the Democratic party. I believe in getting as close to the people as possible, and it was my desire that a primary election be held to select a Democratic nominee for Congress, so that every Democrat could have the privilege of going to his precinct voting place and expressing his choice, but my opponents desired mass conventions at the county seat, and the committee so ordered.

I am now serving my second term as your Representative. I have endeavored, to the best of my ability, honestly, faithfully and conscientiously to do my duty. It is my highest ambition to secure legislation for the relief of the farmers, who have been so grossly imposed upon by unjust laws, and I feel that my experience has fitted me to render valuable service on this line, if I am permitted to continue to represent my District.

My official duties in Washington will prevent me from making an active personal campaign in all the counties of the district, therefore, I will have to rely on my friends to take care of my interest, which I have an abiding faith they will do. Trusting my service as a member of Congress meets with your approval, and hoping my candidacy will receive your valuable aid and support, I am

Very respectfully yours,

WHEN IT'S VULGAR TO BE RICH.

(Fifty Years Hence.)
I believe that in the next generation it will be vulgar to be rich, vulgar to spend money.—Rev. Newell Dwight Hillis.

THE MOTHER.

Come, my darling, come away
From those dressed-up children there.
For their father yesterday
Got to be a millionaire;
Get your playthings, dear—make haste
Or I'll have to wield the switch—
They have ceased to have good taste,
It is vulgar to be rich.

THE MAIDEN.

Nay, it nearly breaks my heart,
But I cannot be your own;
You must leave me, we must part,
Gladness from my heart has flown.
Once you lived on humble fare,
Once you labored in the ditch—
But you're now a millionaire—
And it's vulgar to be rich.

THE HUSBAND.

Darling, 'tis the only counsel
You're an heiress now, you know;
I must get me a divorce—
Oh, but 'tis a crushing blow!
If your uncle had not made
All those millions out of pitch,
Gladness with us might have stayed—
It is vulgar to be rich.

THE CAPTAIN OF INDUSTRY.

Colleges and libraries
Sending all my money back;
All the old-time charities
Closed to me, alas, alas!
Not a channel left to-day,
Not an avenue through which
I may send my wealth away—
And 'tis vulgar to be rich!"
—S. E. Kiser, in Chicago Record-Herald.

The Short Cut Through the Alders

THE village church was crowded with decorous worshippers. The organ voluntary had died away, and a silence, broken only by the hushed footsteps and gentle rustle of some late arrival, pervaded the place of worship.

The minister was just approaching the altar by a private entrance when Mrs. Mary Ann McDougall passed up the aisle, loudly heralded by the musical squeak of new shoes, and paused by the pew occupied by Lawyer Larkin and family. Leaning over this village magnate with a benign smile, she presented his wife with an immense bunch of pennyroyal, saying in a shrill whisper, distinctly audible in all parts of the church: "Here's them herbs I've been a-promisin' yer so long, Mis' Larkin!"

Then, with the air of one who has faithfully performed an important duty, she squeakily tiptoed her way to the pew reserved by the town fathers for the poor.

A half-suppressed smile swept over the congregation at this little diversion in the regular exercises of the day. Mr. Larkin bit his moustache with an air of amusement, not unmixed with vexation; Miss Viola Files, Mrs. Larkin's younger sister, flushed with mortification; three-year-old Myrtle, the baby idol of the family, reached an admiring hand for the pungent bouquet; ten-year-old Harold was too busy watching an unequal combat between a spider and a fly in a corner behind the blind to notice the gift in any way; but his mother, untroubled and serene, received the aromatic offering with as gracious thanks as if it had been a bouquet of rare orchids, bestowed by a royal princess.

Viola looked at her sister's serene face reproachfully. "Throw it out of the window!" she whispered behind her fan. "It scents the whole church."

Mrs. Larkin shook her head. "It's the Lord's incense and worthy of His house," she whispered back whimsically, "but if it is offensive to you, I will place it on the window ledge outside," and she did so, dimpling with amusement at her sister's look of relief.

This little episode would not have seriously disturbed Viola if she had not seen the quick smile which played over George Wayne's face, and the responsive giggle of pert Sadie Griggs, who sat by his side in the choir. It is not pleasant for even the meekest of girls—and Viola was far from meek—to have her family made ridiculous before the eyes of a recreant lover and a triumphant rival. Not that she cared about George Wayne's good opinion. Viola told herself over and over again during the sermon, looking very proud and self-possessed. Why should she care, when he had shown himself so feeble and despicable?

They had been playmates from babyhood, and merely because she had told him he seemed just like a brother, and persisted in accepting the escort of Carl Bennington, a city boarder at the hotel, to the Shakespeare club picnic, George had pretended to fly into a jealous rage. All mere pretense, of course, a scheme to rid himself of his old playmate, for he had taken Sadie Griggs to that very picnic, and the moonlight ride and tennis tournament afterward, and Viola, to show him how little she cared, had kept up a furious flirtation with Mr. Bennington, although his presence bored her almost to the point of insanity, as George might know if he took the slightest interest in her happiness, but he did not.

Now, when they met, he called her Miss Files. Miss Files! when they had pulled hair over her peppermint drops at four, fought like little savages over croquet at ten, and been the frankest and jolliest of chums from that date to the opening of the present season. She didn't call him Mr. Wayne. She would not be such a fool. There was no occasion to call him anything. A frosty bow was sufficient to express her present attitude toward him.

But in another week he was going west. "Way out to Oregon!" His cousin told her so. She didn't care, of course, but there was something very depressing about the weather, and she wished people wouldn't inquire so solicitously about her health and persist in telling her how pale and thin she was growing. It was all imagination on their part. She felt perfectly well, only languid and nervous; that was the fault of the weather.

After the sermon she lingered to avoid George. Let his walk home with that silly Sadie Griggs if he enjoyed such company, and he seemed to. She walked decorously beside her sister and brother-in-law, who were discussing anew the little short-cut through the alders.

"It is all right, Jean," said he, "for you to be kind to Mary Ann, but I don't like her conspicuous way of supplying you with herbs, and as for that path through the alders, I shall have it closed with a good strong fence before the ground freezes. We have no use for it ourselves, and if Mary Ann or the other paupers wish to visit us, let them come around by the road."

"Now, Jack, what harm does it do?" said his wife in her gentle way. "It is full a mile farther by the road, and poor McDougall is too rheumatic to take any extra steps, and her visits to us and my little gifts to her are the only solace she has."

"You make a nuisance of her," said Viola, who was feeling hard and bitter against the whole world in spite of her naturally sunny disposition. "You can't imagine how it mortifies me," she went on, "to hear her tell folks you are just like a sister to her, and see her rush up to you, when you chance to meet in public, and greet you with all the familiarity of an intimate friend. And that short-cut through the alders," here her voice grew hard with misery as she thought of George, who had once kept it well worn with his frequent calls, but now never designed to use it, "that short-cut is a nuisance, as Jack says, and I wouldn't keep it open for the benefit of tramps and paupers any longer."

"Why, Viola!" said Jean in surprise. "what alls you to-day? You know it would break poor McDougall's heart to close that path, and you have always been so kind to her, too."

But they had now reached the house, and Viola rushed to her room without pausing to reply.

The next day she threaded her way through the winding alder-bordered path in search of wild asters, she said; but if so, she forgot to gather any, and was sitting disconsolately on a log by the old spring, when Mary Ann, in pursuit of gold thread, ran upon her. But for once she had no smile or merry small talk for the poor old creature who, after a vain attempt at conversation, went on her way disconsolately.

"That girl ain't well," mumbled the old woman, as she sank down to rest near the gate which opened on the highway. "She won't take pennyroyal nor catnip nor nothin', but she don't look right, and she don't act right, and she's as cross as a bear—poor creature!" And the old crone shook her head forebodingly.

"Now, who is that comin'?" she asked herself, as she heard a heavy step approaching from the highway. She craned her neck and strained her dim eyes in the direction of the sound.

"George Wayne!" she chuckled, her face lighting up with a sudden inspiration.

Then she did a strange thing. She quickly jerked off one of her rubbers and hid it beneath her shawl, then began to moan and complain.

"Why, Auntie, what's the trouble?" asked George, leaning on the gate and gazing down upon her quizzically.

"Oh," she whined, holding out her rubberless foot for his inspection, "they was bran' new only last month, and now one's gone. I dasn't go home without it, and I dasn't go back for it and wet my foot."

"You are in a bad fix, surely, Auntie," said he, jocosely, "but why can't I find the missing rubber for you? It can't be far off."

"Oh, no," said she eagerly. "If you take the path through the alders and turn to the left till you reach the spring, it will be all right, I'm sure, for I didn't go a step beyond there, and thank you kindly, sir."

After making sure he was out of sight she replaced her rubber and settled back comfortably upon her knoll with a self-satisfied smile. "He'll find her, and I never lied once," she chuckled, shaking with silent mirth.

She waited patiently a half hour or more, when she heard the low happy voices of the young couple approaching, but before they reached her, they turned back toward the house. She could see through the tangled alders that his arm was about Viola's waist and she heard him murmur, "I shall always love this little short-cut for your dear sake." Then they disappeared, totally forgetting the old woman whose little scheme had restored their happiness.—Housekeeper.

KISSES OF VARIOUS KINDS.

Philosophical French Writer Analyzes the Differences in Osculation.

To steal a kiss is natural; to buy a kiss is a stupidity; two girls who kiss is a loss of time; not to kiss at all is an insignificance, says a writer in the Paris Le Meschacebe. Two men who kiss is quite ridiculous; to kiss the hand or the tips of the fingers is droll; to kiss one's wife is an obligation; kissing a child is often a regret for not being permitted to kiss the mother; to kiss an ugly person is gallantry; to kiss an old, faded widow shows great devotedness, but to kiss a young, blushing widow is a charm; to kiss one's waiting maid is very dangerous; to kiss one's affianced is a premeditation and a right; an old, rich aunt, it is hypocrisy; a young cook in the bloom of age is delicious, dainty; to kiss a neighbor's wife is doubtless very good, but quite wrong; kissing three girls the same day is an extravagance; a girl whose father is watching her, it may make one jump over the fence; to kiss a mother-in-law is a sacrifice; an old maid, it is politeness; finally, a kiss to one's mother is the purest, the sweetest of all kisses.

Many a woman has played a practical joke on a man by marrying him.

THRO' KENTUCKY.

Thro' the grand state of Kentucky,
Where the "Old Home" got its name,
Where the fields are overflowing
With the yellow ripening grain.

Here tobacco plants are growing,
In the fields not sown with corn,
Tobacco plants—big as cactus—
Just as sure as you are born.

Yes, they're large as good-sized cactus,
Larger in our home-like view,
But it's of a fine grade as
Is that old "Kentucky Dew."

Here all people reap a harvest,
Money in bank from year to year,
All the green calamity howlers,
Lose their jobs when they land here.

Here the "dry" ways are the highways,
Built high and dry from rains and flood,
Here the "good roads delegation,"
Swear the roads are suit'nly good.

But of pikes and highways finest,
There's a "road" that suits my taste;
Tis the line of Solid Comfort,
And the trains let no time waste.

From Kentucky to St. Louis,
Operates this road of class,
Across the famous old "Green River"
On its roadbed smooth as glass.

Would you know the road I speak of?
Listen then to my advice,
For you'll need it in your business,
On your trip to Paradise.

In your travels to St. Louis—
Hustle; beat them under the wire,
"Get the 'Henderson Route' habit!"
Tis a good one to acquire.

CALLS HARVARD MEN STUPID

Prof. Baker of University Declares Average Undergraduate Shows Sad Lack of Imagination.

Prof. George P. Baker, of the English department in Harvard university, told the members of the School Teachers' association of New York city the other day how difficult—almost impossible—it is to teach the average undergraduate.

"There is a great lack of information, especially correct information, among the undergraduates," he said, "as to current events and matters of essential moment to undergraduate life. There is, too, a singular lack of imagination. He is unable to look at things from the other man's point of view. This is shown largely in the college editorial. I have read hundreds of them, and they usually are resolved into two classes, either balanced so nicely on the edge that they can fall one way or the other with rapidity as college sentiment changes, or very skillfully hiding a slight idea in a mist of words.

"I don't see the solution and I don't know who is responsible. I believe that the college is partly responsible, but there are other things which contribute. It is pretty hard to plunge a boy into Harvard elective system. He wants to take everything in sight. With the standards of admission to the college so high, the work of the preparatory school is to cram the boy's mind full of facts. In the college we have not time to correlate these facts, and too often he is sent out of the college with a mind like a desk with pigeon-holes—there is something in all of them, but he has not attained the proper attitude toward learning, literature and citizenship."

LONDON HAS OCCULT FAD.

Society Folks' Latest Craze Is a Game of Magic Crosses Known as "Chromoscopy."

London society loves nothing so much as the occult, and the latest craze seems to be a game of magic crosses termed "Chromoscopy." These crosses, which are small in size and of various colors, are laid on a table in a straight line, and the person who experiments holds a magnet which moves slowly up and down the long line. One by one, but in rotation, the crosses are attached to the magnet, and when at last all are arranged in order an expert can gain an insight into the character and the future fate of the experimenter.

The name and date and if possible the hour of birth must be written down in advance.

Society folk seem keen on this new cult, and even cabinet ministers have consulted the magic crosses.

FIND VALUABLE MASTODON.

Well-Preserved Form of Huge Animal Is Unearthed in the Yukon Territory.

The complete form of a mastodon has been discovered at Hillsdale, on Quartz creek, in the Yukon country. It was imbedded 38 feet in the earth when found and it necessitated the use of a steam thawing plant to unearth the immense animal.

The hair and skin of the beast are in a perfect state of preservation, although the flesh is somewhat decomposed, and the big tusks, which remain fastened to the skull, are in good condition.

It is estimated that the skeleton is worth about $50,000, as there are but one or two of them in existence in as good a condition as this.

The mastodon was discovered buried in an old channel, well in the zone of almost perpetual frost, which accounts for the good shape it is in.

PUT SUGAR IN THE SOUP.

Smith Thought It Was Tea; Then He Deliberately Lied Out of It.

There had been a glorious game of golf, followed by a jolly dinner at the club house, relates the Chicago Record-Herald. Sometimes it is not the correct thing to tell even a truthful story with real names, hence it happens that it was the Joneses who gave the spread and the person that happened in was Smith.

Smith is really a man of parts, wealthy, intelligent and genial and usually knows what's what, but he is not given to swell affairs and is not dressy, withal. A business call had taken Smith to the club house, and Jones, seeing him, called him to the table after the others and began. Soon as he was seated, being preoccupied by salutations from other persons at the table that he knew, he was absent-mindedly sweetening the cup at his elbow, when Mrs. Jones, hoping to make the matter quite plain to this plain man, said, shrilly:

"Ah—Mr. Smith—oh—that is the soup."

"Yes, thank you," Smith nonchalantly replied. "Yes, I understand. But I always sweeten my bouillon," with the slightest emphasis on "bouillon." But Smith was at that moment a prevaricator, to put it mildly. He really thought the cup was tea, and probably never tasted sweetened bouillon in his life.

Disappointment.

The young man with the swell suit, slender frame, and jaunty air, was conscious of being observed.

Out of the corner of his eye he saw that the people on the other side of the street were looking at him as he sauntered along.

A sign on a letter box, "Fresh Paint," attracted his attention.

He stopped and looked at it.

But he did not touch it.

He turned, instead, and looked at the people on the other side of the street through his monocle.

Then he resumed his sauntering.

Some men are too contrary to live.—Chicago Tribune.

Strong Language.

Fredericksburg, Ind., June 20.—Rev. Enoch P. Stevens, of this place, uses strong language in speaking of Dodd's Kidney Pills, and he gives good reasons for what he says:

"I can't praise Dodd's Kidney Pills too much," says Mr. Stevens. "They have done me so much good. I was troubled with my kidneys so much that I had to get up two or three times in the night, and sometimes in the day when starting to the waterhouse the water would come from me before getting there. Two boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills cured me entirely."

"I have recommended Dodd's Kidney Pills to many people, and have never yet heard of a failure. Dodd's Kidney Pills are the things for Kidney Disease and Rheumatism."

Dodd's Kidney Pills always cure the Kidneys. Good Kidneys ensure pure blood. Pure blood means good health.

Mrs. Fairbanks tells how neglect of warning symptoms will soon prostrate a woman. She thinks woman's safeguard is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Ignorance and neglect are the cause of untold female suffering, not only with the laws of health but with the chance of a cure. I did not heed the warnings of headaches, organic pains, and general weariness, until I was well nigh prostrated. I knew I had to do something. Happily I did the right thing. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound faithfully, according to directions, and was rewarded in a few weeks to find that my aches and pains disappeared, and I again felt the glow of health through my body. Since I have been well I have been more careful. I have also advised a number of my sick friends to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and they have never had reason to be sorry. Yours very truly, MRS. MAY FAIRBANKS, 216 South 7th St., Minneapolis, Minn." (Mrs. Fairbanks is one of the most successful and highest salaried traveling saleswomen in the West.)—$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced. Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

Parker's Strength Now.

The Atlanta Journal says in an editorial:

"An answer to a question as to Judge Parker's strength now can be framed in one sentence: The doubtful Northern States and the solid South.

"This combination is what elect Democratic Presidents.

"The three great doubtful States of the North to be won by the Democratic nominee before he can be elected are New York, Connecticut and Indiana. All three are pledged by instructions to support Parker in the St. Louis convention.

"The action yesterday of Mississippi, and Arkansas, both of which instructed for Parker, leaves absolutely no room to doubt the position of the solid South at St. Louis. Let us review briefly the result of the Southern States conventions and see how the solid South stands now.

"Tennessee, Georgia, Mississippi and Arkansas are instructed.

"Alabama, Florida, South Carolina, Virginia and Kentucky are not instructed, but the unit rule prevails, and where the delegation is not for Parker the majority of the delegates favor him and the unit rule will do the rest.

"Texas, Louisiana and North Carolina are yet to act. Texas and Louisiana give the strongest indications in their conventions and North Carolina, if instructions are not adopted, will undoubtedly elect Parker men as delegates.

"There we have the solid South lined up for Parker, joining hands with the doubtful Northern States whose electoral vote will put Parker in the White House.

"Could Judge Parker's warmest friends ask greater strength on the eve of the St. Louis convention? Is there a name mentioned in connection with the Democratic nomination that can show to the assembled Democracy a strength approaching in any degree of equality this of Judge Parker?

"Verily, the die is already cast and only the formal action of nominating Parker remains for the St. Louis convention. The Sage of Esopus will have 294 votes instructed for him at St. Louis if Texas, Louisiana and North Carolina instruct, as the indications clearly point now. This is about one-third of the convention—instructed for Parker. It includes the States of New York, Connecticut, Indiana, Georgia, Tennessee, Mississippi, Arkansas, Louisiana, Texas, North Carolina and Alaska.

"These are uninstructed, but favorable to Parker—so favorable in fact that they will undoubtedly be cast for him on the first ballot—319 votes. This includes the votes of Kansas, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, New Hampshire, District of Columbia, Montana, Alabama, Virginia, Oregon, Washington, Florida, Ohio, Michigan, Kentucky.

"Combining the instructed votes for Parker—294—with those uninstructed but favorable to Parker—319—we have a total for Parker at 619, all of which he will very likely receive on the first ballot.

"The States of Minnesota, Indian Territory, Missouri and North Dakota have not acted yet and there is good ground for assuming that Parker will receive sufficient support from these States to give him the two-thirds majority of the convention necessary to nominate him on the first ballot."

SHOES AND HOSIERY.—Harry Simon is sole agent for Queen Quality Shoes and Effel Brand Hosiery.

Every Democrat Needed.

The veteran Washington correspondent of the Courier-Journal well says:

"In truth, the party needs every man it now has before the convention, and every man it can rally after the convention to insure a national victory. This man in the White House, 'Teddy the Terrible,' is no spring chicken and will put up a dead game fight. He is going to be a bad man to beat, no matter how good and safe a man the Democrats may name, or how strong, sane and conservative may be the platform."

The St. Louis Convention has been called not for the purpose of defeating one Democrat with another, but to choose a Democrat who can defeat Mr. Roosevelt. This can be done, but there is but one way to do it. Grover Cleveland has had his day; Mr. Bryan has had his. Neither is a candidate. The character of Mr. Hearst's candidacy has received too grave injury from the tactics pursued by his agents to hold out the hope that he could carry the party to success. Of all the other men mentioned for the nomination there is not one who is not entitled to the united support of the party. It is only the part of wisdom that the strongest among them should be chosen. When once the choice is made, there should be peace and welcome for every kind of Democrat, except the disorganizer. The organizer needs the reorganizer and the reorganizer, the organizer. The candidate will need them both. There will be no division in the national Republican party. There can be none in the Democratic party, unless a repetition of defeat is more to be desired than a victory won at the sacrifice of personal feelings for the party and the country's good.
